Dunnsville.

Stephen Ostrom is painting the house of Richard F. Prout.

Stephen V. R. Ford, who has been seriously ill with lung trouble and loss of voice, is somewhat better.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leamon, of Central Bridge, were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. S. V. R. Ford, this week.

After the Sunday school, the Rev. A. A. Frederick, of Altamont, delivered an able and impressive sermon to a full house.

Jericho.

Miss Elsie Waldron spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Maggie Wynkoop.

The frost that visited this place last week did considerable damage to the strawberries and other small fruits.

A large hawk was found near Mr. William Lidzy's that measured four feet from tip to tip.

Mr. John Rarick while working for Andrew Waldron, at making fence, cut his hand severely, severing one of the cords on the back of his little finger.

One of our neighboring correspondents speaks about two or three birds agreeing in one nest. How is it where there is only one bird in a nest and then can not agree.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rothaupt, and daughter, of Jerusalem, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lidzy, of Albany, and Mr. Thomas Lidzy, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Lidzy.

It seems that one of our neighbors has been purchasing a dog, one that is master of the farm. He got his master up in an apple tree and the hired man on the milk stool. How is that for pluck?

Feurabush.

Mrs. Henry Mathias is at Albany having an operation performed.

John VanDyck is erecting his cooper shop along the railroad. It is nearly completed.

Miss Ritie Osterhout and nephew, Wm. Walley, spent Sunday at James Hungerford's.

Jacob Relyea has Mr. Radley, of Delmar, painting his house. We admire the color, canary with white trimmings.

Leonard Litchfield, one of the elders of the church, accompanies Rev. T. A. Beekman to the General Synod convening at Grand Rapids, Michigan, June 5th. While there Mr. Litchfield will go a little farther north to Big Rapids and visit his brother-in-law, Peter Wynkoop, who has resided there a number of years.

John Herber's horse got away from him on Saturday night at the post office and ran home. He stood patiently waiting to get in the stable when they caught up with him. This makes the second runaway. About three weeks ago Mr. Elias VanAernam's horse took a little frolic. A bolt broke which hurried Elias out of the wagon quicker than he meant to come. The horse got away from him and ran as far as the hotel where he was captured. The horse was a little crippled so he had a rest from peddling. It was about as exciting times as it was town meeting when seven of our people were on political legs, five living in the village and two in the suburbs, and only one was elected, a republican living in the suburbs.

Mrs. Eliza Weaver, wife of the late John Weaver, died Thursday of last week, aged 75 years. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from her late residence on the State Road. Undertaker Hellenbeck of Altamont was in charge.

Mr. John Quackenbush started Thursday morning of last week to drive to Voorheesville and when crossing the railroad track just below this village was run into by a West Shore freight train, killing his horse and smashing his wagon. Spokes of the wagon were driven into the horse. Very fortunately Mr. Quackenbush escaped injury himself. He did not hear the train as the whistle was not blown or the bell rung. The horse was a very valuable one and was very highly prized by his owner.

To Make Pure Blood

There is no medicine before the people equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the standard spring medicine and blood purifier and it possesses peculiar merit which others try in vain to reach. It really makes the weak strong. Do not neglect to purify your blood this spring. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla now.

Hood's Pills become the favorite cathartic with every one who tries them. 25c. per box.

BACKACHE

AND BEARING-DOWN PAINS

Nearly Drove Mrs. Martin Hale Wild. How She Obtained Relief.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

"Nearly all last winter I was sick in bed, and was attended by different physicians; none cured me, none helped me very much. When I attempted to get up, it was always the same story; my back would ache, I was dizzy and faint, the bearing-down pains were terrible. I also had kidney trouble badly.

"I knew I must have help right away. I resolved to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The results were marvellous. I have gained in every way, and am entirely cured."—MRS. MARTIN HALE, Oakdale, Mass. Every druggist has it.

Voorheesville.

The cold weather has a bad effect on crops. Rye doesn't look very promising.

Morris Harris has improved his place by putting in a new bar and other decorations.

Rev. Gilbert Ward, of Albany, preached in the M. E. church, Sunday morning.

Ed. O'Brien, who has been confined to the house for the past week, has recovered so as to get out occasionally.

Miss Lydia Fox and Mr. Wm. H. Crainer, of Albany, were the guests of Miss Lizzie B. Relyea last Thursday.

Frederick Lagrange, who was thrown from his sulkey on his returning from Guilderland Centre, Saturday, was not seriously hurt.

We notice that both of our grain and feed merchants are doing a lively business. Several cars of grain and feed are unloaded weekly.

Arthur Winn, a bright young minister from Albany, preached in the Presbyterian church last Sunday and will be there again next Sabbath.

The teachers' institute, of the first school commissioner district, will be held here next week. A large gathering of teachers are expected to be present.

We were pleased to see the smiling face of Uncle John Quackenbush in town this week. He stands the "racket" of bucking against locomotives pretty well.

Owing to the small audience, the lecture on "Hell," which was to be delivered by Arthur Helme, of McKownville, Saturday evening, has been adjourned until next Saturday evening, at Harris' Hall.
