BANNON ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Charged With Petit Larceny and Death Was Preferable to Prison.

The timely arrival of Officer Herzog on Monday morning with a warrant for William Bannan, of Albany, charged with petit larceny, saved William from taking his life after he had drunk four ounces of wood alcohol and turned on the gas in his room.

W. H. S. Miner, of this village, who conducts an extensive milk business in Albany, had employed Bannan for some time, and last Friday Mr. Miner discovered that Bannan had made collections which he failed to turn into his employer. This was after Bannan had been discharged. He secured employment in a fruit store in that city and when he learned that Mr. Miner had obtained a warrant for him, he slipped to Schenectady.

Bannan returned to Albany Sunday night about eleven o'clock with a four ounce bottle of wood alcohol he purchased in Schenectady. After writing two notes, one addressed to the person finding his body, and the other addressed to Mable Hamilton, who was to notify his father, Michael Bannan at Port Henry, of his rash act, Bannan drank the wood alcohol, turned on the gas in his room and laid down on the bed fully dressed to await his death.

Court Officer Herzog learned Bannan had returned to town and Monday morning at eight o'clock to his room. There was no response to his knocks and he forced the door open. Herzog was met with a rush of gas and ran to the window and threw it up. Bannan was alive, but unconscious.

The Homeopathic Hospital ambulance was soon at the house and Bannan was removed to the hospital. He was revived sufficiently to have the stomach pump injected, but he fought against it and bit the rubber tube. Bannan was then given an emetic and threw off the poison. The doctors believe he will recover.

BASE BALL NEWS.

A COMPLETE WALK-OVER.

The Voorheesville Base Ball nine experienced a complete walk-over with the Vishers Ferry team at the latter place Saturday afternoon. The game was so extremely exciting that, at the conclusion of the playing, it was found necessary to send the water boys and a few other attendants around with bats to awaken the spectators and advise them that the game was over and it was time to go home. The Voorheesville boys made thirty runs, while the other team (?) made—none.

MARRIED MEN VS SINGLE MEN.

The most advertised game between the Composers and Pressmen, which was to take place on the Delmar diamond Saturday afternoon, was not played, but there was, however, a lively base ball contest between married and single men, the former nine walking off with the honors. The score was 9 and 12. There was a large attendance, and many brilliant plays were made by both sides. Harry Bender umpired the game.

EDLEMAN COMPLIMENTED.

Sunday's Argus pays the following compliment to pitcher Edleman, of Altamont, who formerly twirled for the Voorheesville team: "The Albany Bicycle club defeated the Commercial Bank A. A. team of Ridgefield, yesterday, by the decisive score of 10 to 2. The Commercial boys could do absolutely nothing with the Bi club pitcher, Edleman, who did not allow them a single hit until the eighth inning when he let up a little and the Bank boys secured three hits in the last two innings. Edleman is a young pitcher of great promise."

A Surgical Operation is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me eighteen months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since.—H. A. Tidale, Summertown, N. C. The nearest star, whose distances astronomers think they know, is Alpha Centaur, and it is distant from us four light years—that is to say, its light is four years in reaching us, although traveling at 186,000 miles a second. This estimate places it 232,000 times as far away as the sun.

The governments of German cities were prior to the law of 1892, which Bismarck championed, notoriously corrupt through spoils of politics, but are today the models of efficiency and honesty. The prominent features of the law for their deliverance are home rule, compulsory service of the citizens in municipal affairs, long tenure of office and civil service.

SUNDAY IN OLD ENGLAND. A Day of Festivity Under the Sanction of the King.

For a considerable period prior to the English revolution Sunday was a day of great festivity and high revelry in the old country. Incredible though it may appear, its observance was governed and ordered by a paradoxical royal declaration issued by James I. This document is generally known as the "Book of Sports." In its preamble it recites a royal rebuke administered to "some Puritanes and precise people" for "prohibiting of unlawful punishing of our good people for using their lawful recreations and honest exercises upon Sundays and other holy days after the afternoon sermon or service, and then he refers to "the general complaint of our people that they were barred from all lawful recreation and exercise upon the Sundays afternoons, which cannot but produce two evils, the one the hindering of the conversion of many, whom their priests will, on occasion hereby to vex, persuading; that no honest mirth or recreation is lawful or tolerable in our Religion which cannot but breed a great discontent in our people's hearts. The other inconvenience is that this prohibition barreth the common and meaner sort of people from using such exercises as may make their bodies more able for Warre when we or our successors shall have occasion to use them."

Then follows the royal mandate "that no lawful Recreation shall be bared to our good People" and "the Bishop and all other inferior Churchmen and Churchwardens" and enjoined to "be careful and diligent, both to instruct the ignorant and convince and reforme them that are misled in religion." "Our pleasure likewise is that the Bishop of the Diocese take the like straight order with all the Puritans and Presbiterians within the same, either contraining them to conforme themselves or to leave the country, according to the Lawes of Our Kingdom and Canons of our Church." This declaration proceeds to define "lawful Recreation" as "Dancing, either men or women; archerie for men, leaping, vaulting or any other such harmless Recreation, including May games, Witsun-Aies and Morris-dances and the setting up of May poles and other sports therewith used. But withall we doe here exempt still as prohibited all unlawfull games to be used upon Sundays onely, as Beare and Bull baitings, Interlodes and at all times in the meane sort of People by Law prohibited, Bowling." A penalty was inflicted upon those who did not join in the Sunday sports, and no one could take part in them without first having attended divine service in the parish church, which was also enforced under pain of penalty.

In those days the clergyman would, in obedience to the royal decree, publicly recite the "Book of Sports" from the pulpit. After divine service he would proceed with the congregation to the village green, there to indulge in all kinds of "lawful recreation." While the sports were going on it was the custom for the parson and his churchwardens to retire to the adjoining inn.—Baltimore American.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys, too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling Home of Swamp-Root, all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
