AN OLD-FASHIONED SUPPER.

Mrs. Boutelle Entertains Members of Tawasenta Chapter, D. A. R. - A Unique Affair.

A delightful and most unique social affair was given last Friday evening by Mrs. Frank W. Boutelle to 15 of the members of Tawasenta chapter, D. A. R., when she served an old-fashioned supper. The guests were attired in old-fashioned costumes and jewelry, one of the dresses worn being over 100 years old. The table was loaded with all kinds of viands, which were served in old-fashioned dishes in old-fashion style.

In the center of the table stood a big pumpkin filled with favors, attached to which were streamers upon which were fastened the place cards. Each card bore a verse appropriate to the character of the member. The favors were little old-fashioned pin cushion tea kettles, with hand painted silk coverings. The illuminations of the table and in the dining room consisted of jack o' lanterns and candles. At the conclusion of the feast the guests indulged in the bean bag game. The first prize, which was a little bean pot filled with baked beans, was won by Mrs. W. F. Winship, while the booby prize, a small candlestick, was awarded to Mrs. Charles Hay.

At the conclusion of the games, the guests danced the Virginia reel, the music being furnished by Teddie Boutelle at the piano, and Mrs. Boutelle, the violin. The singing of old-fashioned songs concluded the occasion.

Those present were: Mrs. S. M. Adair, Mrs. F. S. Blessing, Mrs. F. W. Boutelle, Mrs. H. F. Becker, Mrs. W. E. Coughtry, Mrs. W. L. Coughtry, Mrs. J. H. Gardner, Mrs. C. H. Hay, Mrs. J. W. Keefe, Mrs. A. VanDerpoel and Mrs. W. F. Winship of this vicinity, and Mrs. Arthur Banfill of Albany.

An Alarm at Night

That strikes terror to the household is the loud, hoarse and metallic cough of croup. No mistaking it, and fortunate then the lucky parents who keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound on hand. H. W. Caselman, Canton, N. Y., says: "It is worth its weight in gold. Our little children are troubled with croup and hoarseness, and all we give them is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I always have a bottle in the house." Pangburn Bros., Altamont.

Cummings' Xmas Shoes, 118 So. Pearl St., Albany.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

C. H. Slingerland's new garage is nearly completed.

He enters upon his new duties to-day. Mr. Fasoldt will move to Canajoharie.

School Entertainment.

A pleasing Thanksgiving entertainment was given by the pupils of the Slingerlands public school Tuesday afternoon, in the assembly room. While each performer was warmly applauded, the Indian play made the greatest hit. No small amount of credit is due the teachers for the work and time they must have expended in drilling the pupils for their various parts. Many of the children's parents and friends enjoyed the program. At the conclusion of the performance the school closed for the balance of the week.
