Word was received here Saturday afternoon of the death in Amsterdam that morning of Burton Fisher, son of Mary L. Fisher and the late David Allen Fisher, of this village.

Joshua A. Wynkoop, a former resident of this village, died Monday at his home at Clarkville, in his fifty-eighth year. The funeral was held Wednesday at 11:30 at the house and at 1 p. m. at the New Salem church.

On Monday Clarence Fix purchased through Everett L. Hevenor, the local real estate dealer, a building lot on Maple avenue, off of the Becker Improvement Company's tract of land. Mr. Fix contemplates erecting a house on the lot next summer.

Through Everett L. Hevenor, the Slingerlands real estate dealer, Prof. Charles W. Blessing's house on Union avenue has been leased to Clarence Strevell, of New York city. Mr. Strevell has recently been transferred from New York to Albany, holding a position in the Adjutant-General's office. The DeSoto family, who have occupied the Blessing house the past four years, will move to Canada about the first of May.

Miss Agnes R. Davison, daughter of the late John and Mary Davison, teacher of Latin in the Albany High school for many years, died Monday morning at her home on Elm street in that city after an illness of five months. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from St. Peter's church, the Rev. Charles C. Harriman officiating. Miss Davison boarded at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Hiram Becker in this place last summer.

Thomas B. Osterhout, the local plumber, is installing a new steam heating system in the Delmar Reformed church. He is installing a hot water system in George Wood's house, next to his feed store, also lavatories in both of Mr. Wood's houses. Mr. Osterhout has just completed the plumbing work in the new store building of the Elmore Development corporation. The new store will be opened about the first of February and will be conducted by Mrs. Laura E. Neef and her son, Alvin.

Sale in Mortgage Foreclosure.

UPREME COURT—Albany County. JENNIE H. DYER, — against — FRANK T. BRUNK and CERESA B. BRUNK.

In pursuance of and in virtue of a Judgment of Foreclosure and Sale made in the above entitled action, at a Special Term of the Supreme Court, held at the County building in the City of Albany, N. Y., on the 21st day of January, 1914, and duly entered in the Albany County clerk's office on said date, I, the undersigned referee, in and by said judgment, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder at the main entrance of the City hall, in the City of Albany, N. Y., on the 14th day of March, 1914, at 12 o'clock noon of that day, the real estate in and by said judgment directed to be sold, and described as follows, viz:

All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate in the Town of Berne, County of Albany and State of New York, known, distinguished and bounded and described as a Village lot at a place called at one time Beaver Dam now known as Berne and known and described on a map thereof made by Evert Van Alen on the 4th day of June 1831 and filed in the Clerk's office of the County of Albany, N. Y., as lot number Nine on the North side of Beaver Street and bounded on the West by lot number Eight, on the East by lot number Ten, on the South by the said Beaver Street, and containing Fifty feet in breadth or said street. Also that certain other piece or parcel of land situate East and adjoining the above mentioned parcel of land situate in said Town of Berne, County of Albany and State of New York and bounded and described generally as follows: on the South by the highway known as Beaver Street, on the West by the first described lot piece or parcel of land, on the North by lands once owned by Henry Fairlee now owned by James Fairlee, on the East by lands lately owned by one Hiram Willsey now deceased, now owned by Libena Wood, and also on the East and partly on the South by lands once owned by Peter Hochstrasser now owned by John Hochstrasser, and this last described lot hereby conveyed being about Seventy-six feet wide on the said Street, and about Eighty-seven feet wide on the rear and about One hundred and eighty-seven feet in depth along the West line, the East line being irregular, both of said parcels contains about One-half of an acre of land be the same more or less.

Hereby excepting always out of and from the last described parcel of land that part sold and conveyed by deed on the East side by James Fatten and wife to John Hochstrasser.

The premises hereby intended to be conveyed are the same premises owned by James Fatten as a home at the time of his death and devised and bequeathed by him in his Last Will and Testament to his daughter, Mary L. Trotter.

Also excepting out of and from the above described premises so much thereof as was conveyed to Sanford Bassler and Emma Bassler by Frank T. Brunk and Ceresa B. Brunk by deed dated December 31st, 1912, and recorded in Book N. 622 of Deeds, page 10, and therein described as follows: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the village of Berne, town of Berne, Albany county and state of New York, and lying westerly and adjoining a Village lot lately owned and occupied by John Hochstrasser now deceased, and takes its beginning at the southeast corner of the highway of said Village lot of said John Hochstrasser and runs thence northerly on the West line of said Village lot its whole length, so the lands of James Fairlee, then turns and runs westerly on the line between Frank T. Brunk and James Fairlee a distance of Three feet, then again turns and runs on a straight line southerly to the said highway at a point Three feet West from the first mentioned southeast corner of said John Hochstrasser's lot, then turns and runs easterly a distance of Three feet to said southeast corner, the place of beginning.
